
245.00Introduction to Referrals

Introduction This section of the Certification Policy and Procedure Manual contains policies and information about referrals to and from other health care providers.

WIC function in health care The WIC Program functions as an adjunct to the health care system. One of the program benefits for participants is access to ongoing health care and other services through referrals.

Policies This section contains the following policies.

Title	Policy Number
Sharing Data From WIC Participant Records	245.05
Referrals to hawk-i	245.10
Referrals for Title V Maternal Health and Child Health Services	245.15
Using the Health Services Application	245.16
Making Referrals	245.20
Communication Information with Primary Health Care Providers	245.24
Family Planning Services	245.25
Childhood Immunizations	245.30
Local Public Health Services	245.50
Referrals for Abnormal Blood Values	245.60
Substance Abuse Screening and Referral	245.65
Lead Poisoning Prevention	245.70
Water Testing	245.80
Voter Registration	245.90

Forms This section contains the following forms.

Title	Policy Number
Referral from the WIC Program	245.20A
Request for Information Form	245.24A
Release Form for Immunization Data and IRIS	245.30A
Nitrate/Bacteria Water-Testing Log	245.80A
Water-Testing Summary	245.80B

This page is intentionally left blank.